

Contents

|                      |          |
|----------------------|----------|
| FOREWORD..... | 9 |
|----------------------|----------|

PART I

|                                                              |           |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| ORIGIN AND MAIN TOOLS OF PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT ..... | 11 |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|

BUSINESS PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT – A NEW CONCEPT

|                                                                                                                             |           |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| OF PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT (Bernard Ziębicki) .....                                                            | 13 |
| 1. Introduction .....                                                                                                       | 13        |
| 2. Interpretation of the performance management concept .....                                                               | 14        |
| 3. The origin of Business Performance Management .....                                                                      | 15        |
| 4. The essence of Business Performance Management concept .....                                                             | 20        |
| 5. Business Performance Management and Business Intelligence.....                                                           | 22        |
| 6. Methodology of Business Performance Management .....                                                                     | 24        |
| 7. Key Performance Indicators as the main parameters of assessmentof activities in Business Performance Management..... | 26        |
| 8. Methods of Business Performance Management .....                                                                         | 27        |
| 9. Benefits of using Business Performance Management .....                                                                  | 28        |
| 10. Conclusion.....                                                                                                         | 30        |
| 11. Bibliography.....                                                                                                       | 30        |

BALANCED SCORECARD – A MULTI-CRITERIA

|                                                                   |           |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| PERFORMANCE MEASUREMENT TOOL (Marek Ćwiklicki)..... | 33 |
| 1. Introduction .....                                             | 33        |
| 2. Rationale behind original BSC version.....                     | 34        |
| 3. Classic perspectives of BSC.....                               | 37        |
| 4. Balanced Scorecard for non-profit organizations.....           | 40        |
| 5. National versions of BSC .....                                 | 41        |
| 6. BSC applied to business process performance measurement .....  | 43        |
| 7. Strategic dimension of BSC .....                               | 45        |
| 8. Functionalities of BSC software .....                          | 46        |
| 9. Conclusions .....                                              | 47        |
| 10. Bibliography.....                                             | 48        |

|                                                                                                                                                                            |            |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| STRATEGIC PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT AS A TOOL SUPPORTING IMPLEMENTATION OF THE VALUE BASED MANAGEMENT CONCEPT (Marek Marian Jabłoński) .....                    | 51  |
| 1. Introduction .....                                                                                                                                                      | 51         |
| 2. Strategic Performance Management .....                                                                                                                                  | 52         |
| 3. The design of a performance management system .....                                                                                                                     | 55         |
| 4. Business analytics as a way to increase company's value.....                                                                                                            | 60         |
| 5. Strategic Value Based Management .....                                                                                                                                  | 63         |
| 6. Processes of the creation of company's value .....                                                                                                                      | 64         |
| 7. The Balanced Scorecard as a tool supporting implementation of a Strategic Performance Management concept .....                                                          | 67         |
| 8. Conclusions .....                                                                                                                                                       | 71         |
| 9. Bibliography .....                                                                                                                                                      | 71         |
| ACTIVITY BASED COSTING AS THE TOOL OF PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT (Marta Kołodziej-Hajdo).....                                                                | 75  |
| 1. Introduction .....                                                                                                                                                      | 76         |
| 2. Use of activity-based costing for the needs of Performance Management...                                                                                                | 80         |
| 3. Application of activity-based costing in performance management .....                                                                                                   | 85         |
| 4. Conclusion.....                                                                                                                                                         | 97         |
| 5. Bibliography.....                                                                                                                                                       | 98         |
| RATIO ASSESSMENT OF LIABILITY CENTRES AS AN ELEMENT OF PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT, ILLUSTRATED BY THE EXAMPLE OF WIELICZKA SALT MINE (Janusz Nesterak) ..... | 99  |
| 1. Introduction .....                                                                                                                                                      | 99         |
| 2. Structure of liability centres in Wieliczka Salt Mine .....                                                                                                             | 00         |
| 3. General description of the assessment system for the centres in Wieliczka Salt Mine.....                                                                                | 103        |
| 4. Effectiveness measures for liability centres in Wieliczka Salt Mine ....                                                                                                | 107        |
| 5. Conclusion.....                                                                                                                                                         | 122        |
| KEY FEATURES AND IMPERATIVES OF PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT (Tomasz Rojek) .....                                                                              | 125 |
| 1. Introduction .....                                                                                                                                                      | 125        |
| 2. The performance management concept in an enterprise .....                                                                                                               | 128        |
| 3. An effectively managed enterprise .....                                                                                                                                 | 130        |
| 4. Conditionings of effectively managed enterprises' activity .....                                                                                                        | 132        |
| 5. Enterprise performance as a factor of its development .....                                                                                                             | 137        |
| 6. Enterprise value in the performance management concept .....                                                                                                            | 139        |
| 7. Conclusions .....                                                                                                                                                       | 141        |
| 8. Bibliography.....                                                                                                                                                       | 142        |

PART II*CHALLENGES AND NEW AREAS OF PERFORMANCE*MANAGEMENT ..... 145*PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT AS THE PRESENT APPROACH TO EMPLOYEE'S APPRAISAL (Beata Buchelt) ..... 147

1. Introduction ..... 147
2. Employee's performance appraisal as the inseparable element of human resource management ..... 149
3. The determinants of the employees' performance ..... 155
4. The employee's performance appraisal process and appraisal system .... 160
5. Conclusion..... 165
6. Bibliography..... 166

PREMISES AND PRINCIPLES OF THE COMPETENCY – BASED PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT (Marek Jabłoński) ..... 169

1. Introduction ..... 169
2. The essence of performance management..... 170
3. Human resources as the key factor of success of the enterprise ..... 172
4. Premises related to human resource management ..... 174
5. Development of employee competences as a factor of improvement of results ..... 176
6. Conclusions ..... 184
7. Bibliography..... 186

PERFORMANCE MARKETING - MARKETING DECISION SUPPORT SYSTEM IN THE ENTERPRISE (Jarosław Plichta) ..... 189

1. Introduction ..... 189
2. MIS and Performance Marketing..... 190
3. The role of Performance Marketing according to the concept of Corporate Performance Management ..... 195
4. The importance CRM as a concept in the development of PM..... 197
5. Performance Marketing on the Internet – Base Performance Advertising ..... 202
6. Conclusion..... 208
7. Bibliography:..... 208

PERFORMANCE MEASURING METHODS FOR NON-GOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS (Tomasz Kafel) ..... 211

1. Introduction ..... 211
2. The essence and the advantages of applying "Non-Profit Index" method..... 213

|                                                                                       |     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 3. Method of self-assessment and development of a non-governmental organization ..... | 216 |
| 4. Assumptions of Prove and Improve methodology .....                                 | 221 |
| 5. Conclusion .....                                                                   | 228 |
| 6. Bibliography .....                                                                 | 229 |

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY VS. PERFORMANCE

|                                                                                                                     |            |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| MANAGEMENT (Adam Jabłoński) .....                                                                     | 231 |
| 1. Introduction .....                                                                                               | 231        |
| 2. A place and a role of corporate social responsibility in contemporary company management.....                    | 232        |
| 3. Stakeholder dynamics and a shape of a business model of a company achieving acceptable business performance..... | 236        |
| 4. Tangible and intangible resources in a sustainable business model and company's value and performance .....      | 242        |
| 5. Corporate Sustainability Management a Performance Management ....                                                | 243        |
| 6. Conclusion .....                                                                                                 | 250        |
| 7. Bibliography.....                                                                                                | 251        |