

Contents

Introduction	7
 Waldemar Hoff
Administrative law in the perspective of cosmopolitan legal theory	13
 Jan Chmielewski
The common good and the European Union – selected legal issues	27
 Łukasz Młynarkiewicz
Dimensions of the concept of good administration in the European Union ..	41
 Helena Kisilowska, Jan Góralski
Outsourcing in public administration	50
 Jerzy Korczak
Co-administering as a policy in the administrative reform.
Reasons for reforms of public administration and types of these reforms ..	63
 Aldona Piotrowska
Delegation of tasks and responsibilities in the network of supervisors	75
 Dorota Dąbek
Administration's liability for unlawful law-making and legislative omission ..	88
 Marcin Kamiński
National courts' ex officio application of European Union law.
General principles in the light of the normative regulation of proceedings
before Polish administrative courts	97
 Piotr Dobosz
Polish legal regulations in the field of administrative-judicial mediation
against the background of European inspirations	113

Martyna Wilbrandt-Gotowicz

Methods of administrative procedure standardization in European Union law. Towards integrated administrative proceedings . . . 122

Katarzyna Wlaźlak

The optimal model of planning in the public administration 140

Maria Karcz-Kaczmarek

The impact of European Union law on practicing professions of public trust in Poland – selected issues. 149

Wojciech Piątek, Andrzej Skoczylas

Application of new technologies in administration as exemplified by international co-operation between the European Union
Member States in the recovery of public receivables 160

Łukasz Maszewski, Paweł Żukowski

Basic rules of Central Registry and Information on Economic Activity in Poland 169

Anna Barczak, Aneta Kaźmierska-Patrzyzna

Municipal waste in the context of the Act on Waste of 2012 182

Marcin Janik

Anti-epidemic measures as a plane of cross-border cooperation
– a few observations in public goods context 205